THE GRAPEVINE 24/4/2022

ACTS 5:12 - 32

Easter, what a great celebration. Last week we focussed on the importance “To Remember”. Gone was Peter’s view that the resurrection was “an idle tale”, the women’s experience was a powerful affirmation of new life, because the very Spirit of God that raised JESUS... was within them! They couldn’t help but start

“REACHING OUT INTO THE COMMUNITY”

No more hiding inside for fear of the Jews, the Romans, their neighbours, the nasty man down the end of the road, the young woman who recognised Peter from the courtyard, or the bitter Kabab dealer who was in constant conflict with everyone. The women, Peter and the other disciples remembered and were confident believers ONCE AGAIN.

This Sunday is the beginning of a 6 week series, entitled “REACHING OUT INTO THE COMMUNITY.” As we walk The Way of the Cross, we will consider the ways in which our “Christian witness is always disruptive, for it declares that God has upset the “status quo” and violated ‘business as usual.’” P 17 Easter Proclamation series

That is a big quote, what does it mean? How did the early disciples deal with this tension? In our modern world how do we make sense of this? How do we live with integrity?

Peace, Rev DJPrior
