

COMMUNITY MARKETS

The goal for The Vines Uniting Church in 2023 is to “Reconnect with The Wider Community”. A significant way in which we can do this is through our Markets.

The first Market for 2023 will be held on Saturday April 15th from 10am-3pm. For these Markets to be a success it needs everyone to find a way in which they can contribute. The biggest need is for people to help on the stalls, at some stage during the day.

The Plant Stall is always very popular and for a number of years Elaine Manson has managed the stall with help from a number of others. She is no longer able to do this, so if you feel you could coordinate the plant stall, it would be very much appreciated. Unfortunately, Jenny Croft will be unable to coordinate the Devonshire Teas this year, so please consider if you might be able to take this on.

These two ladies have done an awesome job and we sincerely thank them for their commitment and dedication. It is time now for someone to step up and fill their shoes.

If you feel you can help in any way, please speak to Marj Dredge. Please phone her on her mobile, not the home phone.

FRIDAY FRIENDS

Friday, February 24th is the next coffee morning. We had a great start in January and are really looking forward to continuing this year on the last Friday of every month. 10am-11.30am. Great conversation, great company, great coffee and great cake! Everyone welcome. Bring a friend and enjoy some time out. We look forward to seeing you.
